

The KCB Environmental Education Committee is the committed group of volunteer advisors that bring high quality sustainability events to Coppell. Events include monthly gardening and sustainability classes, as well as a couple annual special events. The commitment typically includes meeting one evening each month as well as offering support at the events on a rotating basis. If you have specific skills and ideas to contribute, we welcome creativity that would make environmental education appealing to a broader audience of Coppell residents.

Environmental Education Committee Member Application

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____ Mobile _____

Email _____

Why are you interested in serving on the Coppell Environmental Education Committee?

In what ways do you feel most equipped to contribute to the planning and production of environmental education events?

_____ Event Leadership	_____ Event Promotion/Marketing
_____ Volunteer Coordination	_____ Assisting at Events
_____ Administrative Projects	_____ Photography
_____ Other: _____

What would you like to see the committee do in Coppell over the next two years?

Please return to Community Programs Coordinator, Molly Bujanda at kcb@coppellcommunitygarden.org